MILLER LANIER

1964

A.L. Miller Senior
Lanier Senior
Macon, Georgia

THE Spirit

Moments to remember . . . moments of laughter moments of wonder, moment of study, all are a part of a school spirit—a spirit that has given students moments to remember since Lanier opened its doors back in 1914, and Miller in 1928.

This year, 1963-1964, students are no different.
They, too, will have their moments to remember—a football game and the cheering fans,

—but it is more than a football game,
working hard for a club,

—but it is more than a club,
senior plays and chemistry labs

—but it is more than enjoyable work,
upholding tradition,

—but it is more than tradition.

In all these there is an undefinable substance—
School Spirit.

Students remember rivalry between the classes at Miller and between the military companies at Lanier.
But throughout the rivalry, the thread of unity is strong. The awed Sophomores, the working Juniors, or the mighty Seniors—big wheels or little wheels—
leader or followers—they all work together to make Lanier and Miller what they are—the best schools in the world.

The spirit of Lanier High School is evident in our community by the fact that many of our civic leaders are Lanier High School graduates.

It is hoped that this spirit will be maintained by the Class of 1964, as it has been in the past years by other graduating classes.

I feel sure that many civic leaders of tomorrow are among you. I hope this yearbook will bring happy memories of your years at Lanier High School.

Tom Porter

In his one year as principal of Lanier High School, Mr. Tom Porter has mastered the intricate business of managing Lanier. Every day he deals with students' problems, supervises school activities, and helps develop citizens. Most of all he encourages the students to uphold the fine school spirit that reigns at Lanier. He, too, has a spirit that makes the students proud.

The Staff of '64

Montage of your Miller years:

Light and laughing days
Crowded with frantic schedules,
Joys of many friendships
Hopes for the dreamed-of love,
Treasured success in classrooms,
Noble acceptance of disappointment.

May the essence of this school spirit be your path to abundant living.

Clara Nell Hargrove

For the years that you have given to education both in the classroom and as an administrator, for the compassion, understanding, and insight which you possess in dealing with the problems of young people, we express our appreciation for a job well done.

The Staff of '64

Spirit IN THE FACULTY

"Reading, 'ritin, and 'rithmetic." Perhaps at some schools teachers are just robots that teach the three "r's". Not so at Lanier. A teacher at Lanier is a person who takes an interest in the students.

Besides staying up half the night grading papers, he is there to help decorate for your Homecoming Dance. A missed deadline? There's the advisor doing his part to get the paper to press.

You are not just a name or face to a teacher at Lanier but an individual, with individual problems and ideas.

In the halls of Lanier friendly "hellos" are exchanged between friends—teacher and student.

There'll be many a moment for Lanier boys to remember about the faculty—for each teacher possesses, too, the School Spirit—the Spirit that dominates everyone who is a part of Lanier High School.

Spirit

IN THE SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore seems to possess a kind of evident School Spirit—the energetic kind that makes his section yell the loudest at football games; the kind that makes his class contribute most to the Red Cross and have more subscriptions to The Poet Leader; for to the Sophomore these things are the things that count.

As Sophomores, Lanier boys feel rather small and insignificant; but Lanier High would not have the School Spirit that it does, were it not for the Sophomores.

Spirit OF THE JUNIORS

The Junior is the soul of the school for it is he who has his footsteps most firmly planted in Lanier High School. Not the ruler, nor the greenhorn, he is the worker. He does not receive the glory or the privileges of the Senior, and does not receive the attention and teasing given the Sophomore.

The Junior, perhaps, possesses more School Spirit than any other—the Spirit that makes him the worker of Lanier High School.

Spirit IN THE SENIORS

"We are Seniors at last" is the cry of every upperclassman as he reaches his final year. No longer must he look up to others, for he is now looked up to.

The Spirit of Lanier seems more important somehow; and everything must be the very best because it will be his last. Whereas the Sophomore deals in firsts, the Senior experiences the many lasts—the last Homecoming, last pep rally, last dance and the last exam.

Commencement arrives, and after Commencement there are bigger shoes to fill and new roles to be played.

As we, the Class of 1964, think back on our high school, we say, "Thank you Lanier High School, for three wonderful years. The Lanier Spirit shall guide us always."

Lanier Senior Honor Group

President—Joan Joyner

Vice-Pres.—Dawn Lowrance

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Sec.-Treas.—Judy Howell

Directors—Sherry Weimer, Elaine Trawick, Jean Clark, Shelia Veal, Judy Stahl.

ACTIVITIES

Spirit IN THE CLUBS

There is a club at Lanier for every interest: career club, language club, honorary club, and pep club. Each one's main objective is to be a service to Lanier High School and to further its school spirit.

Clubs bring people together; it is through clubs that friends are made as they work hand in hand, side by side, on a project. Teachers and students are brought closer together through their common interest in a club.

With thirty clubs and nearly twelve hundred students, Lanier is always bustling with activities.

Clubs are an important part of the School Spirit of Lanier High School; it is here that many find the outlet for the Spirit they possess.

Eloise Wilson Reigns As Homecoming Queen

By Mike Buchanan

This year's Homecoming activities were crowned with the crowning of Miss Eloise Wilson as the Queen during halftime ceremonies at Patten Stadium. Miss Wilson was sponsored by a enthusiastic group of young men who are members of the Sidney Lanier Literary Society.

Homecoming activities were held in the gymnasium and the football field. A pep rally was held in the gymnasium on Tuesday night before the actual coronation.

SPORTS

Spirit IN THE SPORTS

Winning or losing, the Spirit is always present at events in which the Lanier Poets are playing. The Spirit displayed by the fans in the crowd, by the team on the field, or by the coaches on the sidelines—this Spirit is never stilled.

We sometimes are prone to think that all the Spirit is in the grandstand. This is not true. The real Spirit is the kind that makes the player refuse to quit when he is injured. It is that Spirit which makes the team keep trying when they are losing. The Spirit is that which gives the Poets the desire to play for his school—the desire to make Lanier the best in every way.

Good sportsmanship is not only a great desire to win but also a gracious acceptance of a loss. It takes a great deal of Spirit to fill this definition, but it is this characteristic that has given Lanier Poets a reputation of being good sports.

FOOTBALL

Capably led by Head Coach Jim Nolan and his staff, the Lanier football team ended the 1963 season with a mark of five wins, four losses, and one tie.

The Poets packed fans and spectators into Porter Stadium with each home appearance and provided them with a rousing sample of high school football.

Excellent coaching efforts, coupled high team spirit and enthusiastic fan support, enabled the Poets of Lanier to make the victory column and complete a season to be proud of. Their performance this year will long be remembered.

Captain David L. Carter

Spirit IN MILITARY

The Spirit so vital to Lanier High School is found at its height in the Military.

The activities of the military department go on continuously. While the Sponsor Parade, Military Ball and Competitive Drill are the big events of the year, they are not the only things which make 1964 stand out in our memories from all the other years. They occur annually; but only this year did the Miller girls visit Lanier for the weekly parades. This was also a year for an excellent physical education program with keen competition between companies.

These are the things we shall remember; but most of all we are proud of being a member of the largest and best Junior R. O. T. C. Unit in the nation. It is the Spirit in the military that has made Lanier High School rated as an Honor School for 1964.

WILL I STILL BE ABLE TO LISTEN TO 'BML RADIO?"

HIS FAIRY GODMOTHER TOLD HIM,
"Most Assuredly So!"
HE GRADUATED WITH HONORS.

MERCER UNIVERSITY

Founded in Penfield, Georgia, January 14, 1833, as Mercer Institute. Mercer University, the "oldest child" of the Georgia Baptist Convention, has been the chief source of Baptist ministerial and lay leaders through the years. Among the many notable Baptists who established this institution, three stand out: Josiah Penfield, whose legacy launched the movement; Jesse Mercer, who nurtured and supported the project; Billington M. Sanders, who, with Cynthia Holliday Sanders (Old Miss), fostered it through the first seven years. Mercer was one of the few colleges in the South that remained open during the War Between the States and the only one for men in Georgia. It was moved to Macon in 1871.

Spirit

IN THE ADVERTISEMENTS

To maintain harmony between the businessmen and the school is the goal of every Administrator, Faculty member, and student of Lanier High School.

The location of the school in the center of the city makes this absolutely necessary. If the members of Lanier High School did not know they had the respect and admiration of the business firms around us, the School Spirit would not be as great as it is.

Much of this respect and admiration is come by naturally as many of the business men and civic leaders are alumni of Lanier.

The businesses in the city are forever being asked to buy ads or to donate to school projects. They have always fully cooperated

In the many years that Lanier High School has existed, its members have been able to stand proud and erect because of the excellent Spirit between Lanier and firms in the city.

Tommy King
Lanier Business Manager
